BIOGRAPHY

Walter Hall, SMSgt, U.S. Air Force (Ret.), brings his considerable experience in both the military as well as commercial business to the MBD team. As Senior Vice President of Training & Development, Walt is the resource for all of our Business Development training workshops and can also advise clients on additional personnel development services we offer. He is an energetic and dynamic speaker, management consultant, and facilitator with nearly 30 years of management and leadership experience in corporate and government organizations.

Walt is the consummate trainer. From designing and facilitating professional seminars for senior level managers to helping frontline employees, he has devoted his entire career to human development. Walt genuinely enjoys helping people make greater contributions in their roles, and he possesses an exceptional ability to connect with audiences.

A confirmed expert in the areas of human resources and employee relations, Walt has developed and implemented advanced learning technologies for all of his employers, both civilian and military.

Walt has conducted over 2,000 seminars throughout the US, Japan, Saudi Arabia, Korea, and other international locations. For ten years, he held senior level corporate positions with large and small financial institutions in Alabama, North Carolina, and Louisiana where he specialized in the training and development of all employees.

Prior to working within private corporations, Walt served over 22 years in the US Air Force. As a senior leader with the Air Force, he was responsible for the management, leadership, welfare and morale of thousands of military employees throughout the US and abroad. His last assignment was as a Master Instructor for the US Air Force First Sergeant's Academy. His military decorations include Meritorious Service Medal with six oak-leaf clusters.

Walt earned an M.S. in Human Resources Management from Troy State University and a B.S. in Education, Training and Development from Wayland Baptist University. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Air Force, Academic Instructor School.
